Re: Workplace Violence and Harassment Prevention

Dear Jinpeng Zhu ,

On behalf of Organizational Development and Health, Safety and Environment, Human Resources, Health, Safety and Environment, congratulations on completing Workplace Violence and Harassment Prevention.

The Culture of Care, the University of Alberta three-year safety action plan is based on health and safety as a core value within the university community. With this training, you are able to:

1. Identify a safe and respectful workplace
2. Identify workplace harassment and violence
3. Describe/explain how to respond to workplace violence and harassment in accordance to university policy
4. Identify the legislation, policies and procedures
5. Identify the resources, support and professional development opportunities

Completion of Workplace Violence and Harassment Prevention demonstrates your commitment to collaborate in the creation of a safe physical, psychological and culturally safe workplace where everyone owns their safety performance and that of others so we all go home safely each day. Please keep a copy of this letter to share your accomplishments with your current and future supervisors. We encourage you to apply your training in your workplace and to become a champion for workplace health and safety.

Kind Regards,

Zhengwei Xu
